How your sponsorship funds are used:

- Local farmers at the table. Up to 20 farmers from whom we purchase the local grown produce and product for the Farmer's Table Dinner are included as our guests at the dinner. (Farmers are paid market rates for their product)
- Farmer's Forum. 100+ Litchfield County farmers attend the free biennial Farmer's Forum at Wamogo Regional High School. They receive the agri-business skills enhancement they request. This day-long forum offers sessions developed on topics identified by local farmers at a gathering the prior winter. Exit surveys are given to confirm the subjects were relevant, sessions valued and the connections important
- CSA (Community Supported Agriculture) shares for Litchfield County residents who otherwise would not have access to seasonal locally grown produce. Annual proceeds from The Farmer's Table Dinner provide fresh produce as part of 3000 meals for the underserved in Northwest Connecticut who otherwise may not have access to fresh, healthy local produce
- Internships. Farm internships are given to local students who have expressed interest in agricultural careers
- Grants. All-expense stipends for farmers to attend professional agricultural conferences.
- Start-up grants for the Torrington-based Northwest Connecticut Regional Food Hub. The food hub aggregates produce from Litchfield County farmers to attract large institutional buyers
